

Transplanted Londoner to Address Club

John Pettley, a London-born Englishman who visited the United States in 1946 to study application of Meteorology to movie-making and promptly fell in love with the country, will be the guest speaker to address the Executives' Dinner Club of the Torrance Area the evening of Saturday, Oct. 8, 6:30 p.m. at the Plush Horse Restaurant, President R. S. Pyle said today.

Pettley returned to his native England after a year here but stayed there only a year. Back he came to America, acquired an American wife (now has a family of four) and has lived here since 1948.

He admits American customs and manners stumped him briefly. They're the greatest in the world he brags and wouldn't change them for those of any other nation. He will talk to members here on the subject "An Englishman at Large in America," which is a humorous recital of his early experiences in the United States.

Belgian Consul To Tell Congo Story Oct. 11

The Men's Club of Temple Menorah of the South Bay is planning a gala membership dinner meeting for Tuesday, Oct. 11, at 6 p.m. at the Temple building, 112 N. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach.

The meeting will feature a talk by the Hon. Georges Barthelemy, Consul General of Belgium, who will speak on the Congo crisis. The story of Belgium's role in the Congo and the pressures that built up to an explosion will be told by Mr. Barthelemy, one of Belgium's top foreign-affairs officials. An open discussion will follow.

This meeting is open to all men of the Temple Menorah congregation regardless of whether or not they are Men's Club members.

The meeting will be preceded by a chicken dinner. Due to limited capacity reservations should be made early by calling Fred Spangler, FR 1-4517 or Seymour Uberman FR 8-1605. This promises to be an extremely interesting evening and one of the outstanding events of the Men's Club.
